

Version: 1.0
Updated: January 18, 2025

Speedcubing Canada Logo Usage Policy

Purpose

This policy outlines the allowed usage of the Speedcubing Canada logo. Please contact media@speedcubingcanada.org for downloadable versions of the Speedcubing Canada logo.

Logo Usage Policy

Speedcubing Canada Directors and Officers

Speedcubing Canada directors and officers may use the Speedcubing Canada logo on internal documents, presentations, and other materials related to Speedcubing Canada activities.

Supported Events

Organizers and/or WCA Delegates may use the Speedcubing Canada logo on the website, printed materials, and apparel for competitions and other events that have been recognized under the Speedcubing Canada Supported Events Policy.

Other Uses

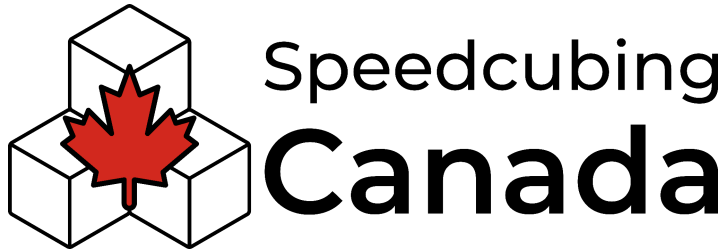

Any other requests to use the Speedcubing Canada logo for purposes not outlined in this policy must be approved on a case-by-case basis by the Speedcubing Canada board of directors. For inquiries, please contact media@speedcubingcanada.org.

Prohibited Use

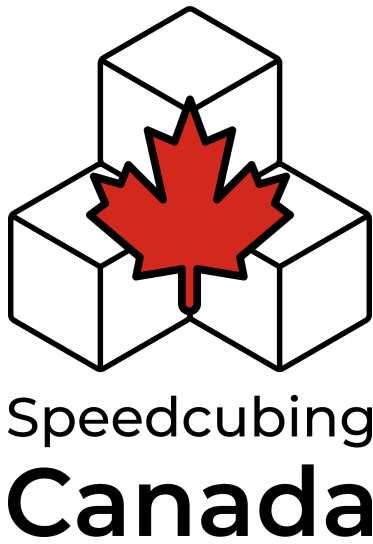

- Do not use the Speedcubing Canada logo to implicitly or explicitly suggest official representation or endorsement by Speedcubing Canada of any product or service.
- Do not use the Speedcubing Canada logo as the icon or logo of another business, organization, product, service, project, social media account, or website.
- Do not modify the permitted Speedcubing Canada logos by changing the dimensions, colors, words, or other design elements.
- Do not use the Speedcubing Canada logo for any other reason not mentioned in this document without the Speedcubing Canada board's prior written permission.

Logo Versions

The standard version of the Speedcubing Canada logo appears in landscape orientation:

When needed, the logo can appear vertical orientation:

As required, the logo colours may be adjusted to white-on-black to support its appearance on dark backgrounds or to monochrome (black or white) to support limited printing capabilities. When the logo appears monochrome, the maple leaf in the centre should be filled.